Scott Adair and his wife, Amy, have been married for 35 years. They have three grown children and five grandchildren. Scott has served full-time on the faculty of the College of Bible and Ministry at Harding University since 2001. His current slate of classes includes The Life and Teachings of Jesus, The Faith and Mission of the Church, Christology, and Living Christian Traditions. In addition to teaching classes, he directs the Center for Family Ministries at Harding. He has degrees from Harding School of Theology and Fuller Theological Seminary. He currently serves as an elder and part-time minister at Highway Church of Christ in Judsonia, AR, where he has been on staff for over 31 years. Helping individuals, churches, and institutions ground their identity in the Gospel of Jesus Christ is the focus of his writing projects and his speaking engagements.
